June 3-28th $200.00 Cost Per Child for a two-week session

STEAM-ing into Summer Art

STEAM is an educational approach to learning that uses Science, Technology, Engineering, the Arts and Mathematics

Morning Sessions (9-Noon): Ages 6-10 yrs. / Afternoon Sessions (12:30-3:30): Ages 11-15 yrs.

TELL YOUR FRIENDS! The two-week sessions will cover STEAM infused mixed media opportunities with experienced art teachers. Classes will include instruction covering the elements of art and the principles of design with examples from the master painters. Within the month students will have 2-D and 3-D experiences such as various forms of printmaking, clay, origami, drawing and painting, etc...in addition the morning students will experience fabric art and shell creations, etc.…; the afternoon students will experience the silk screen process and create acrylic pours, etc.... All supplies will be provided. Students are to bring a snack and drink if desired. No water or sodas will be provided. Prompt arrival and dismissal is encouraged, a late fee of $20 will be charged for any student not picked up one half-hour after dismissal.

Enrollment is limited please register now. Registrations for Session 1 are due by Friday-May 24th
Registrations for Session 2 due by June 14th Walk - ins welcome if room is available.
The Fridays ending each two-week session will be shortened to enable a *Fantastic Student Show for each group. Most art work will be held for the shows and all work is to be taken home on the that second Friday.
Instructors: Dr. Clare Putnam Phd. and Jackie Bishop, BMEd, will teach mornings and Peggy Nolan, MEd. S, the afternoon sessions: these are teachers with elementary and secondary school and summer program experience.
